FLOOR DEBATE

February 13, 2006 LB 478

dollar is precious, as far as Nebraska state law is concerned. This is not a bill about recognizing or forgiving somebody's pension. This is a bill that, in fact, only goes to people who are working. It only goes to people who have a job. It only goes to people who have a second job after they've retired from the military and are in the defense business. What's going to...what's the net result? It allows us to target the kind of approach and incentive that we create for a particular kind of worker that is necessary for a particular kind of job, in an industry we very much want to attract to Nebraska. Senator Cornett's amendment encapsulates some of the amendments done last year, as well as updating for time. I support it and the bill. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Landis. Further discussion on the Cornett amendment, AM1810. Senator Chambers, followed by Senator Combs. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, if I read the papers correctly, Senator Landis is the very one who told businesspeople that they need to try to get bigger income tax cuts from the state now, because this might be their last shot. I'd like to ask Senator Landis a question before I proceed...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Landis?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to Senator Cornett's bill. Senator Landis, did you make a statement to that effect?

SENATOR LANDIS: No, I didn't.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you...

SENATOR LANDIS: But I'll be happy to tell you what I said, because it's close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, that's what I'm getting at.

SENATOR LANDIS: It was kind of a leaner, in horseshoes. Part of it's true. We've got about $100 million that the Governor
